Please explain why you are requesting a pardon. Your answer should be as detailed as possible:

Upon receipt of your pardon application, and required documents; eligible applications will be reviewed by the Commission. The Commissioners will review your application - and determine whether to grant or deny a hearing. The Commission may request an investigation completed by a hearing officer.

The Commission requires your personal appearance at your scheduled pardon hearing. You will be notified of the Commissioner's decision by mail to the address provided on this application, unless you update your address with the Commission.

The Parole Commission will not return any documents submitted with your application.

Please note that the granting of a pardon does not expunge information concerning the crime from your Idaho criminal history.
